The response is as follows:

Question:

1. How much is spent now on external printing contracts that have replaced the Queen's or King's Printer? (Amount spent on external contracts for printing across government).
2. Have they tracked wait times, for example, for external printing contracts compared to the wait times when it was a central agency?

Response:

1. The printing expenditures over the past eight years, based on contracts with four local print businesses, are as follows:
  - 2016-17: $328,275
  - 2017-18: $220,321
  - 2018-19: $292,525
  - 2019-20: $220,285 (closure of Queen's Printer Agency)
  - 2020-21: $233,829
  - 2021-22: $258,401
  - 2022-23: $306,295
  - 2023-24: $178,234 to date

The Yukon government has gone more digital in recent years.

2. Wait times are not tracked. However, each job is set with a delivery timeline to be met by the printer.
