Dear MLA White,

Re: Written Question No. 14

---

Thank you for sharing a written question regarding the membership of the Aging In Place Seniors Advisory Committee.

The Aging in Place Seniors Advisory Committee includes members from the Government of Yukon, Yukon First Nations, non-governmental organizations, and individuals with lived and living experience.

Government of Yukon representatives include representatives from the Yukon Housing Corporation, including Phillippe Mollet and Colin McDowell; and from the Department of Health and Social Services, including a Policy and Issues Analyst, Cameron Heke, and the Committee's Chair, Assistant Deputy Minister Sharon Specht.

The Committee is made up of representatives from First Nations governments which includes Paul Sahagian for Little Salmon Carmacks First Nations, and Alexis Anderson for Council of Yukon First Nations; non-governmental organizations includes Deborah McNevin for Seniors Action Yukon, Jan Trim for Yukon Council on Aging, Patty Moore for St. Elias Seniors Society, Patricia Brennan the Manager of Senior Services with the Association Franco-Yukonnaise, and Michelle Friesen with the Association of Yukon Communities. The committee also has two members at large, including Dennis Senger and Marsha Flumefelt.

Thank you for taking the time to write to me about the Aging In Place Seniors Committee.

Yours truly,

Tracy-Anne McPhee
Minister of Health and Social Services
