Committee of the Whole: Vote 54 Tourism and

Motion No. #

RE: Bill No. 204: First Appropriation Act 2022-23

at page(s) 1695 of Hansard.

The response is as follows:

Ms. Van Bibber asked for a breakdown of a line item for $75,000 allotted to the Conrad historic site in the Department of Tourism and Culture's (T&C) 2022-23 budget.

- For the Conrad Historic Site the 2022-23 funding breakdown is as follows:
  - The $75,000 in question will go towards the conservation of Cabin 1. This year we will have a building conservation expert assist with initial conservation of the cabin. Once completed, Cabin 1 will be used as a seasonal interpretive centre for the site.
  - Conservation of the cabin requires replacing rotten sill logs, bracing the building for reconstruction of a new addition, construction of new windows, doors, a roof and interior flooring.
  - The building conservation expert will work with Historic Sites staff and Carcross/Tagish First Nation (CTFN) citizens or staff to conserve the building while improving log conservation skills.
- The Conrad Historic Sites Operation and Maintenance (O&M) budget this year is $122,000, which will go towards:
  - Hiring a CTFN citizen for 6 months to assist with implementation of the Heritage Management Plan and the Interpretive Plan ($52,000);
  - A Transfer Payment Agreement with CTFN to assist with site maintenance ($20,000);
  - Administration and events - e.g., portable toilet rentals, meetings/events, etc. ($25,000);
  - Initiative development of interpretive signage at the site ($25,000).
