2. This legislative return relates to a matter outstanding from discussion with Kate White, Member for Takhini-Kopper King on April 7, 2022 related to:

Bill No. # 204

Second Reading  Third Reading

Committee of the Whole: Vote 03 Education

Motion No. #

RE: Status of secretary – Education Appeal Tribunal

at page(s) 1805 of Hansard.

The response is as follows:

The Department of Education received applications from members of the public interested to join the Education Appeal Tribunal.

Janet Van Bibber, a current board member, has been appointed Chair. In addition, four new members have been appointed, bringing the total number of members to seven (which includes the Chair and one Council of Yukon First Nation representative).

The contract for the position of secretary expired at the end of March and a replacement is being sought. The department has made a temporary arrangement for the secretary position until the role is filled.
