

From: Tristan Newsome

Sent: Wednesday, April 27, 2022 8:07 AM

Electoral Reform

Proportional Representation! We are long past the days where Members of the Legislative Assembly are anything but extensions of the Party mantra. And that's fine; with politics becoming less local and more national, it's simply the way of things now. With this in mind, an electoral system based on proportional representation will better represent the interests of the electorate.