SPEAKER'S STATEMENTArtwork in the Legislative Assembly

Prior to proceeding with the Daily Routine, the Speaker made the following statement regarding artwork in the Legislative Assembly.

“Before we proceed to the Daily Routine, the Chair would like to inform the members of the new artwork being displayed in the Assembly, beginning to my right and moving counter-clockwise around the room.

First, we have beaver mitts made by Pearl Keenan in 2012. Pearl Keenan was a respected Tlingit elder of the Daklaweidi clan. Her Tlingit name was T'aakú Tláa, which means 'Mother of the Taku River'. She made these hand-sewn mitts in 2012 from beaver fur and moosehide that she tanned herself using the methods taught to her by her mother. They feature embroideries on the wrists in traditional Tlingit designs that are not often seen today.

Pearl created many kinds of sewing, using traditional patterns and techniques passed down to her from the women in her family. She was dedicated to the continuation and the sharing of these techniques for younger generations.

Pearl sat on many boards and committees, including the Yukon First Nations elders council, First Nations Education Commission, Skookum Jim Friendship Centre, and the Yukon College elders advisory council, and she was the vice-president of First Nation programs and services.

Second, we have the Landscapes of Gold bowl from 2019 by Monika Käte Steputh. This ceramic bowl was created by Haines Junction-based artist Monika Steputh. Originally from Germany, she has made the Yukon her home since 2013. Monika forms her pieces intuitively and applies glazes to represent the layers and formations of landscapes and weather phenomena as seen on this bowl. Touches of gold represent awareness and connections between people and nature in the land or in the sky as stars. Monika finds constant inspiration in the open spaces of the north and loves to create ceramic works based on the impressions of her journeys through majestic landscapes. Her work reflects her aesthetic of simplicity and elegance and a philosophy of interconnectedness between people and the land.

Third, we have Hunter with Shape Shifter by Alex Dickson from 2005. Alex Dickson was a respected and prolific Tlingit artist, working in wood and many other materials. This mask was carved from red alder. The features of the face are accentuated with paint in red, black, and a light turquoise wash, as well as abalone inlays in the eyes. Animal imagery is incorporated into the eyebrows, and horsehair adorns the top. In addition to masks, Alex created paddles, headdresses, totem poles, mammoth ivory sculptures, pendants, and rings. His carvings were made in the Tlingit tradition that was passed down to him. He created designs based on this tradition and developed with his own unique style, inspired by stories he was told during his childhood. He was also recognized for his knowledge of traditional medicines and outdoor skills.

Fourth, we have @totokaelo by Alainnah Whachell from 2017. Alainnah Whachell is a Whitehorse-based artist who creates sculptures in a range of materials, including concrete, plaster, resin, beaded cloth, glitter, cardboard, and ceramics. In this piece, the composition of beads recreates a pixilated screenshot of a luxury online clothing store's Instagram account, created from a pattern generator. The grid that anchors the beadwork references minimalism in its repetition of simple forms. Through her carefully constructed works, Alainnah seeks to instill everyday materials with intimacy. Her practice explores relationships between surfaces and form, desire and capitalism, fashion, semiotics, time, and uncertainty.

Finally, we have Arrival of the Dog Team from 2017 by Shirley Adamson. Shirley Adamson is an elder of the Tagish Nation and belongs to the Wolf clan. She created this intricately beaded dog blanket for the Yukon First Nation dog blanket project in 2017. It is one of a set of 10 traditional blankets that were created to be showcased at the Yukon Quest that year and were worn by a ceremonial dog team for the start of the race. Shirley is an artist, language teacher, and storyteller and honours the history of her ancestors through the sharing of traditional stories and revitalization of language. She learned to sew and bead from her grandmother and now also creates photography, paintings, textiles, and sculptures using natural and found materials.

Artwork is an important part of Yukon's heritage, and I congratulate all of the artists in the placement of these important works."

Pursuant to Standing Order 11(2), the House proceeded with the Daily Routine.

VOTES AND PROCEEDINGS OF THE
YUKON LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

First Session35th Legislature

Monday, April 11, 2022

The Speaker took the Chair at 1:00 p.m.

PRAYERS

Pursuant to Standing Order 11(1), the Speaker offered a prayer.

SPEAKER'S STATEMENTTabling Returns and Documents not an opportunity for debate

Prior to proceeding with the Daily Routine, the Speaker made the following statement regarding the rubric Tabling Returns and Documents in the Daily Routine.

“The Chair will make a statement regarding a trend that the Chair has observed regarding the use of the rubric ‘Tabling Returns and Documents’. During Tabling Returns and Documents on Thursday, April 7, 2022, the Minister of Health and Social Services tabled a legislative return that was nominally in response to an oral question asked by the Leader of the Third Party the preceding day. In fact, the legislative return was intended to repudiate the preamble to the oral question that had been delivered by the Leader of the Third Party. The attachment to the legislative return was composed entirely of quotes by the minister as excerpted from Hansard.

The same day during Tabling Returns and Documents, the Leader of the Third Party tabled pages from Hansard from a range of dates to draw attention to quotes by the Minister of Health and Social Services.

Other members have also stood under the rubric ‘Tabling Returns and Documents’ to table Hansard excerpts this Sitting. Hansard is already within the public record of the Assembly and, as such, it is not necessary to table Hansard excerpts or pages of Hansard. The Clerks do not hold documents that are photocopies or excerpts of Hansard in the records of the Assembly as the complete Hansard already exists.

With respect to the use by the Minister of Health and Social Services of the legislative return that provided Hansard quotes by way of a response, this is an inappropriate use of a legislative return. This document will not be entered into the Assembly’s working papers, and I am returning it to the member. Legislative returns should be used to answer questions by members, not to correct another member's record as perceived by a minister.

As well, on March 31, 2022, the Chair delivered a statement regarding the description that can be provided when tabling a document under the rubric 'Tabling Returns and Documents'. As mentioned in that statement:

'The rubric of Tabling Returns and Documents in the Daily Routine is not an opportunity for debate or for members to make statements. Members should restrict their description of documents to be tabled to the item's date, title of the document or article, or a brief description if the document does not have a title. Descriptions should not constitute commentary or comparisons. If members wish to make members' statements, then members should change the Standing Orders accordingly.'

However, in the sitting days following this statement, the Chair has observed that the Minister of Community Services tabled documents that meet the letter but not the spirit of the Speaker's statement. This includes the minister tabling on April 5 and April 7 newly created materials with titles designed specifically to form a narrative. This practice ignores the spirit of the Speaker's statement and should stop. These documents are not going to form part of the working papers of the Assembly.

As I have advised members previously, and will use this opportunity to strongly advise members again, if members would like to deliver members' statements, provisions for which exist in most other Canadian legislative assemblies, then members should add a provision for this rubric to the rules. Thank you for your attention."

Pursuant to Standing Order 11(2), the House proceeded with the Daily Routine.

SPEAKER'S STATEMENTIn recognition of Brenda McCain-Armour's retirement

Prior to proceeding with the Daily Routine, the Speaker made the following statement in recognition of Brenda McCain-Armour's retirement.

"Today we mark the retirement of one of our own — Brenda McCain-Armour. In the gallery today, we have Brenda McCain-Armour's wife, Gail Armour; their daughter, Mikayla McCain; Brenda's mother, Marcia Seely; and from the Legislative Assembly, Lyndsey Amundson and Helen Fitzsimmons. Please join me in welcoming them.

Brenda McCain-Armour has announced her retirement, which will begin July 20, 2022. She will be on pre-retirement leave until January 3, 2023.

Brenda has had an interesting working life. She worked as a supervisor at the Gadzoosdaa student residence for the Department of Education from 1994 to 2006. During her term, she supervised 39 teenagers, developing strong relationships with the students and their families.

From 2003 to 2006, Brenda worked as a co-owner of Cozy Comforts Boarding Kennels. She was also a supervisor at the Canada Post Corporation from 2001 to 2008. Brenda and her partner, Gail, had a family business called the Armour Lawncare and Snow Removal company from 2010 and only recently began winding up their interest in this business this year in preparation for retirement.

Brenda was hired as the Assistant Chief Electoral Officer responsible for planning, organizing, and managing the conduct of elections of Members of the Legislative Assembly and of trustees of school boards and members of school councils. The person holding this position is denied the right to vote in elections conducted under either the Elections Act or the Education Act.

When Jo-Ann Waugh retired on March 28, 2013 as the Chief Electoral Officer, Brenda acted as the Chief Electoral Officer until August 11, 2014 when the new Chief Electoral Officer was appointed.

On March 23, 2015, Brenda started working with Helen as the operations manager. As March 23 is Helen's birthday, Helen said it was one of the best birthday presents she has received. During her term as operations manager, Brenda provided senior-level support to Helen for administrative, financial, human resources, and information management for the Legislative Assembly, the Elections Yukon office, Conflict of Interest Commissioner, Office of the Ombudsman, and Child and Youth Advocate Office.

The Legislative Assembly Office has a wide range of responsibilities with a small number of staff, and Brenda has always been willing to pitch in wherever needed. Brenda has always provided reliable customer service to all our stakeholders.

The Legislative Assembly, especially Helen, acknowledges the huge loss of a dedicated employee like Brenda. Our best wishes to Brenda and her family. Have fun in your new home in Invermere.

Brenda, we hope to see you from time to time on your many expected visits to the north."

Pursuant to Standing Order 11(2), the House proceeded with the Daily Routine.

I would like to extend my thanks on behalf of the Speaker, the Deputy Speaker, and the Deputy Chair of Committee of the Whole, and on behalf of all Members of the Legislative Assembly to Clerk Dan Cable, Deputy Clerk Linda Kolody, Clerk of Committees Allison Lloyd, Director of Administration, Finance, and Systems Helen Fitzsimmons, and our retiring Operations Manager Brenda McCain-Armour, Finance and Operations clerk Lyndsey Amundson, as well as Sergeant-at-Arms Karina Watson and Deputy Sergeant-at-Arms Joe Mewett, who all provided invaluable support to all MLAs and their staff in order for all of us to continue to do the important work that we are sent here to do on behalf of all Yukoners.

As well, I would also like to take this opportunity to thank the skilled team at Hansard for their timely and accurate service and all the other background staff and contractors who keep this Legislative Assembly operating.

I would also like to thank our camera operator, Chris Rogers, our camera operator for the Assembly. I would also commend the hard-working civil servants who deliver services to Yukoners and support to all of us members in our work.

I wish all Members of the Legislative Assembly all the best after this long winter. I hope that all of us can look forward to a summer of family, friends, and the great Yukon outdoors. Thank you very much.”
