YUKON LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

First Session35th Legislature

Tuesday, October 11, 2022

The Speaker took the Chair at 1:00 p.m.

PRAYERS

Pursuant to Standing Order 11(1), the Speaker offered a prayer.

SPEAKER'S STATEMENTSAddressing members by official titles

Prior to proceeding with the Daily Routine, the Speaker made the following statement regarding addressing Members of the Legislative Assembly.

“Before proceeding with the Order Paper, the Speaker would like to remind members to address each other by their official titles in the Assembly. This should not include adjectives or modifiers that are not members’ official titles. During Question Period on Thursday, the Leader of the Official Opposition used the term ‘the presumed future Premier’ when referring to the Minister of Economic Development and the term ‘interim Premier’ when referring to the Premier. In addition, the Premier used the term ‘the individual who was trying to be the leader of the party’ when referring to the Member for Lake Laberge. This is not the way to refer to other members, and I would ask all members to refer to other members by their titles.”

Changes to the Order Paper – Withdrawal of motions

The Speaker made the following statement regarding changes made to the Order Paper.

“The Chair wishes to inform the House of changes made to the Order Paper. Motion No. 435, notice of which was given on October 6, 2022 by the Member for Lake Laberge, and Motion No. 441, notice of which was given on October 6, 2022 by the Leader of the Third Party, were not placed on the Notice Paper as they are not in order.

As highlighted by previous Speakers — notably, on October 28, 2020 by Speaker Clarke — Standing Order 29(1) of the Standing Orders of the Yukon Legislative Assembly states: ‘A motion is used to propose that the Assembly (a) do something; (b) order something to be done; or (c) express an opinion on a matter.’ Urging the government to recognize certain facts is neither doing something, ordering something to be done, nor having the Assembly express an opinion on a matter.”

Prior to proceeding with the Daily Routine, the Speaker made the following ruling regarding tabling documents.

"Before proceeding with the Order Paper, the Chair would like to remind members of the practices of this House regarding the tabling of documents and 'correcting the record'.

As noted in the statement by Speaker Clarke on November 4, 2020, a Member of the Legislative Assembly cannot claim to 'correct the record' of what another member has said in the House.

In addition, the rubric 'Tabling Returns and Documents' is not an opportunity for debate, either in the form of comments made by a member while tabling a document or in the content of the document itself.

As members cannot do indirectly that which they cannot do directly, documents that are tabled cannot be used to 'correct the record' of another member.

On Thursday, October 20, 2022, the Minister of Health and Social Services tabled a letter dated October 20, 2022 that she had written to the Leader of the Third Party. The content of the letter was designed to correct in the official records of the Assembly, by way of tabling the letter, things that the Leader of the Third Party had said during debate in the Assembly. The letter also sought apologies for the things that the Leader of the Third Party had said in the Assembly.

For the reasons that I have stated, this letter has not been accepted into the working papers of the Assembly, and I will return it to the Minister of Health and Social Services."

Use of the terms “peddling fear” and “fear-mongering”

The Speaker made the following ruling regarding the use of the terms “peddling fear” and “fearmongering”.

“On Thursday, October 20, 2022, the Member for Lake Laberge rose on a point of order during Question Period and stated that the Minister of Community Services had used the word ‘fearmongering’ in his remarks and that the word was unparliamentary in the context in which it was used. The Chair found that there was a point of order.

Later, during that same Question Period when the Minister of Community Services accused opposition members of ‘peddling fear’, the Member for Lake Laberge rose on a point of order noting that the terms ‘peddling fear’ and ‘fearmongering’ were very similar. In addition, in speaking to the point of order, the Government House Leader asked if ‘peddling fear’ was to be ruled out of order, then in what way could ‘fear’ be used?

First, ‘peddling fear’ and ‘fearmongering’ are seemingly one and the same because they both imply intentionally selling fear; therefore, as applied to members of the Assembly, the terms are not in order.

Second, the Chair will rule on language used in this House as it comes up and will view it in the context in which it was used. In the Legislative Assembly, context is very important. It is the Chair’s responsibility to view each situation based on the context at hand. The Chair doesn’t deliver rulings in advance, but I will maintain order within the Assembly so that members remain respectful in their remarks.

Finally, I will note that during points of order, some members feel the need to editorialize events when speaking to a point of order, or else they make comments after they have cited the Standing Order they feel is being contravened. Such comments are a continuation of debate, or just taking a dig at another member and are not in order. Please keep your points of order to the facts only.”

Pursuant to Standing Order 11(2), the House proceeded with the Daily Routine.

CHAIR'S RULING

Alleging non-compliance with the law

Ms. Blake, Chair of Committee of the Whole, delivered the following ruling:

"On Tuesday, October 25, 2022, during debate in Committee of the Whole on Bill No. 19, entitled Technical Amendments Act (2022), a point of order was raised by the Government House Leader after the Member for Lake Laberge stated, 'This is unfortunately, as I noted, not the first time we have seen a case of this government — this Cabinet — failing to comply with the law.'

Chairs in the past have ruled on this matter. During the 33rd Legislative Assembly, the Chair of Committee of the Whole delivered a fulsome statement regarding the use of such language. In this April 24, 2012 statement, the Chair said — and I quote:

Compliance with acts passed by this Legislature is an important issue for this House. Members must have the opportunity to pursue that line of questioning, if they believe compliance is absent or incomplete. At the same time, members have to keep in mind that the Assembly is not a court of law and that the House does not have the authority, or the appropriate processes, to determine whether an individual has broken the law.

Reminding a member that he or she has a duty to uphold the law is in order. Citing instances where a law is not being complied with, in the opinion of a member, is also in order. However, it is not in order to inject into debate a direct accusation that a member has broken the law.

If a member wishes to make a charge against another member, he or she must do so by way of a substantive motion for which notice is required.

In light of this, and given the matter that was before the Committee at the time that the Member for Lake Laberge made the comment, I find that the line of questioning and the expression used was in order. However, I will caution all members to ensure that any remarks that they make in debate, alleging non-compliance with the law, conform to the principles laid out in the Chair's April 24, 2012 statement."

Bill No. 20, Animal Protection and Control Act

Committee of the Whole resumed (from October 25, 2022) consideration of Bill No. 20, Animal Protection and Control Act (Hon. Mr. Clarke, Minister of Environment).

Ordered, on motion of the Hon. Mr. Clarke, Minister of Environment:

VOTES AND PROCEEDINGS OF THE
YUKON LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

First Session35th Legislature

Thursday, November 10, 2022

The Speaker took the Chair at 1:00 p.m.

SPEAKER'S STATEMENTIn recognition of Remembrance Day

The Speaker made the following statement.

"I have a statement for Remembrance Day.

Tomorrow is Remembrance Day. On this day in the Yukon Legislative Assembly, we remember all those who have served and continue to serve in the Canadian Forces, the RCMP, and all other related agencies, and remember the tens of thousands of brave souls who we lost in the line of service to our country.

Across Canada, Remembrance Day services will be held in town halls, cenotaphs, and indoor facilities to mark this day. This year marks the 80th anniversary of the raid on Dieppe. On August 19, 1942, the Allied Forces undertook a raid on the French coastal town of Dieppe, known as 'Operation Jubilee'. Nearly 5,000 of the 6,000 troops that landed in Dieppe as part of the raid were Canadian. There were also 1,100 British and American troops who took part in the raid; 916 Canadian soldiers died during the raid on Dieppe, and 2,400 Canadians were wounded or captured.

Important lessons were learned from the tragedy of the raid on Dieppe. These lessons were put into the planning for the Allied invasion of Normandy two years later.

World War II was a seminal war in the 20th century. Sadly, there were many other wars in that century. With the advent of the atomic bomb, wars now have an ultimate consequence that must be contained. Today, tragically, war is being fought in a number of locations around the world, such as: Yemen, Ethiopia, and Ukraine. Humankind is all too familiar with war and its terrible consequences.

Remembrance Day is about remembering those who sacrificed so much for their fellow citizens and to remember the innocent victims of a war.

Here in the Yukon, many Yukon communities are having ceremonies, with the local veterans and servicemen and servicewomen taking part, to mark Remembrance

Day. Visit the website of the Whitehorse Legion Branch 254 , or visit the Facebook page ‘Yukon Remembers’ to get more information about these events near you. In our homes, around our kitchen tables, in discussions with family and friends, take a moment to remember if you can’t get to one of these ceremonies. It is our remembrance of the horrors of war and their consequences that makes us all work toward a world that does not see war as a solution to problems, but a terrific failure in the way that we settle disputes.

Lest we forget.”

PRAYERS

Pursuant to Standing Order 11(1), the Speaker offered a prayer.

SPEAKER'S STATEMENTSpeeches during Tabling Returns and Documents

Prior to proceeding with the Daily Routine, the Speaker made the following statement regarding the tabling of documents.

"The Chair would like to make a brief statement on the tabling of documents. Yesterday, during the rubric 'Tabling Returns and Documents', the Minister of Tourism and Culture, in tabling two documents related to the Department of Tourism and Culture, stated: 'If I could just ask the Assembly for a little bit of flexibility, I just want to thank the department for their work...' — and so on. I am not going to repeat the whole statement. Members should not use the time for tabling returns and documents to make speeches. This is out of order, and I will ask the Minister of Tourism and Culture not to do that again. There is plenty of time to debate in this House, and there are more appropriate times to thank the department officials."

SPEAKER'S RULINGPhrasing around the word "fear"

The Speaker made the following ruling regarding phrasing around the word "fear".

"Yesterday, during debate on Bill No. 20, the Animal Protection and Control Act, the Member for Lake Laberge rose on a point of order after the Government House Leader stated in his remarks: 'Beyond this, the Yukon Party sought to create fear around a range of issues'.

Yesterday, I cautioned members about phrasing around the word 'fear' in the Assembly. For further clarity, members should not imply that other members are deliberately setting about to create fear. Members should seek different phrasing with respect to the word ‘fear’.”

SPEAKER’S STATEMENT

Changes to the Order Paper – Withdrawal of motions

The Speaker made the following statement regarding a change made to the Order Paper.

“The Chair wishes to inform the House of changes made to the Order Paper. The following motion has been removed from the Order Paper as the action called for in the motion has been taken in whole or in part: Motion No. 479, standing in the name of the Member for Vuntut Gwitchin.”

First Session35th Legislature

The Speaker took the Chair at 1:00 p.m.

PRAYERS

Pursuant to Standing Order 11(1), the Speaker offered a prayer.

SPEAKER'S STATEMENTIn recognition of National Child Day

The Speaker made the following statement in recognition of National Child Day.

"National Child Day is on Sunday, November 20. We have in the gallery today Child and Youth Advocate staff: Annette King, Child and Youth Advocate; Anya Braeuner, advocacy caseworker; Shauna Kewin, advocacy caseworker; and Julia Milnes, deputy advocate.

In addition, they are joined by artists from We Are Storytellers: Grey Capot-Blanc; Justin Johnson; and Justin's mother, Tracy Kane.

On November 20, 1989 – 33 years ago – the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child, UNCRC, was adopted by the United Nations General Assembly.

Canada ratified the UNCRC two years later, in December 1991. The convention is the most widely ratified human rights treaty in history. National Child Day recognizes the historic commitment to the world's children. All governments carry the responsibility and obligations to uphold children's rights.

There are 42 rights outlined in the convention that focus on non-discrimination, survival, development, considerations of the best interests of children, and participation of children in the decisions that affect them. Every child has the right to be protected from harm, be provided with the provisions to develop to their full potential, and be given the opportunity to be active participants in, and agents of, their own lives. This day provides an opportunity to celebrate the power of youth voices and the actions of those who work to promote the realization of children's rights.

In 2009, the Yukon government passed the Child and Youth Advocate Act. Since that time, the advocate has addressed 1,400 advocacy issues for over 800 children and youth to ensure that the rights under the UNCRC are fully upheld. These youth have learned that they have a right, through the advocacy office, and that their views are important and matter. They are encouraged to use their voice and feel empowered and heard.

This year the Child and Youth Advocate Office published We Are Storytellers, a collection of stories and artworks from both established and emerging youth artists from across the territory. The goal of this project is to celebrate the incredible diversity of creative talent that we have here in the Yukon, and to give young people a space to share their stories in their own ways.

We Are Storytellers showcases work from 18 Yukon youth artists representing both Whitehorse and several communities. These artists are: Billie-Janine Richard, from Whitehorse and a citizen of Kwanlin Dün First Nation; Samreen Ahmad, from Whitehorse; Stormy Bradley, from Dawson City and a citizen of Tr'ondëk Hwëch'in First Nation; Hakim, from Whitehorse; Grey Capot-Blanc, from Whitehorse; Robby Dick, from Ross River and a citizen of Kaska Dene First Nation; Jiah Dzentu, from Fort Simpson, NWT, now living in Whitehorse; Meriya Gmeiner-McPherson, from Whitehorse; Victoria Holmes, from Dawson City; Justin Johnson, from Haines Junction and a member of Champagne and Aishihik First Nations; Wilfred Johnston, from Teslin and a member of the Teslin Tlingit Council; Ali Khodakarami, from Whitehorse; Tiana Lucas, from Pelly Crossing and a member of Selkirk First Nation; Chantai Minet, from Whitehorse and a member of Teslin Tlingit Council; Cole Pauls, from Haines Junction and a member of Champagne and Aishihik First Nations; Sarina Primozic, from Haines Junction and a member of Champagne and Aishihik First Nations; Nika Silverfox-Young, from Carmacks and a member of Little Salmon Carmacks First Nation; and Carissa Waugh, from Whitehorse and a member of Kwanlin Dün First Nation.

The book was compiled and edited by the Child and Youth Advocate Office's Christopher Tse. The book has been supported by Douma Alwarid, who is a fierce champion for local talent and youth art throughout the Yukon and is stocking the book on her shelves at Unorthodox.

Today, we celebrate all of these young artists for their talent, creativity, stories, and resilience. As a Yukon community, we are all better off when our young people step into the space and share their voices through their unique gifts. The Child and Youth Advocate Office honours these young people today ahead of National Child Day, and remains dedicated to empowering children and youth to paint a world they wish to see for themselves in the future."
