First Nations Persons Elected to the Yukon Legislative Assembly

On August 1, 1960 a new Canada Elections Act was given Royal Assent. The act gave persons with the legal status of an 'Indian' the right to vote and run as a candidate in Canadian elections. The changes first applied to elections for the Yukon Territorial Council in the 1961 general election. In the chart below, a member's term begins on the day the member is elected either in a general election or by- election. The member's term ends on the day the member resigns or dies, or the day before an election where a member is defeated at the polls or chooses to not run. Days in Office are calculated to December 31, 2020.
