RE: “Regarding the water and sewer work in Haines Junction — the village was expecting this work to start in the spring. Unfortunately, the project wasn’t tendered until just about the end of June. Then it took quite a while for the project to be awarded... Can the minister explain what the delays on this project were?”

The response is as follows:

The Haines Junction water and sewer upgrades is a complex project. There was significant work required to finalize the scope of the project and prepare the tender documents. This resulted in delays in awarding the tender beyond the original timeframe. The project has now been awarded to Sidhu Trucking. Construction work will commence in spring 2018 with completion targeted for fall 2018.
