Nursing at the Watson Lake Community Hospital

on November 25, 2019 at page(s) 834 of Hansard.

The response is as follows:

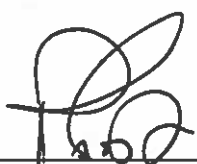

I am pleased to provide the following information provided to me by the Yukon Hospital Corporation;

There has been no impact to service at the Watson Lake Community Hospital, and the hospital has plans in place so that service is not disrupted.

The current state of nursing staffing is stable until March, 2020.

They plan their nursing schedule three months in advance and book necessary agency nurses and make additional arrangements to fill vacant shifts.
