2. This legislative return relates to a matter outstanding from discussion with Ms. Hanson, Member for Whitehorse Centre on December 7, 2020 related to:

Bill No. 205  Second Reading  Third Reading
 Committee of the Whole: Vote 07
 Motion No. _____ RE: Whitehorse Emergency Shelter Community Safety Planning at page(s) 2261 of Hansard.

The response is as follows:

Question -

Why would Economic Development countenance that diminishing of the experience [of area businesses] — changing the [Whitehorse Emergency Shelter 2020-21 Community Safety Plan] language so that it basically makes it all fine?

The response is as follows:

The Department of Economic Development did not participate in the Whitehorse Emergency Shelter community safety planning process. The following departments did participate in the process: Health and Social Services, Department of Justice, and Community Services. The Kwanlin Dün First Nation, the Ta'an Kwäch'an Council, and the City of Whitehorse were our other government partners on this project. There were a number of other participants, all of whom are stated inside the report.
